

SWISS NATIONAL ELECTIONS SURVEY INSIGHTS 2023

Shaping Switzerland's Global Health Future

SHAPING SWITZERLAND'S GLOBAL HEALTH FUTURE

Join us in reviewing the insightful results of the Swiss National Elections Campaign survey conducted by the Swiss Malaria Group (SMG) and the Swiss Alliance Against Neglected Tropical Diseases (SANTD).

Candidates to the 2023 Swiss national elections answered our questions, and shared their perspectives on global health policy .

DISCOVER THE SPECTRUM OF OPINIONS

Across Swiss cantons and parties .

95%

GLOBAL HEALTH PRIORITIES:

95% agree -Switzerland needs a comprehensive global health policy. Key priorities: Affordable healthcare, Infectious disease control, and addressing climate change impacts.

+ de 200

INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION STRATEGY:

Insights into ongoing consultations- 200+ prioritize health, 160+ emphasize migration.

→ View the report

SWISS NATIONAL ELECTIONS SURVEY INSIGHTS 2023

Shaping Switzerland's Global Health Future

EMPOWERING SWITZERLAND IN GLOBAL HEALTH INNOVATIONS

SWISS INVOLVEMENT IN R&D

Over 95% support Swiss public and private sector R&D for combating communicable diseases. Fostering innovation and technological advancements must remain a cornerstone of Swiss politics.

MAINTAINING LEADERSHIP

90% believe in Switzerland's vital role in fighting communicable diseases. Let's sustain our historical leadership for a healthier world.

AWARENESS OF SMG/SANTD

1/3 of participants already aware of SMG and SANTD activities.
Engage with us to stay informed!

YOUR VOICE MATTERS!

Engage with these insights to shape Switzerland's global health policies.
Stay informed, stay involved!